Bon Meade Second-Graders Portray Famous Americans

Students in Dawn Ermlich's second-grade class at Bon Meade Elementary dressed and spoke as noted historical figures in a "Famous Americans Museum" held four times in May.

Each student selected a famous United States citizen, researched and drafted a paper about their selection and presented a short speech to classmates and visitors.

Famous Americans represented by the second-graders included Amelia Earhart, George Washington, Tiger Woods, Helen Keller and Thurgood Marshall among many other selections.
