Bon Meade Second-Graders Portray Famous Americans

Second-graders Conor Suchar, Cole Moorman, Noel Vizz, Alana Bacher and Malia Hinton chose to learn more about Roberto Clemente, Ben Franklin, Wilbur Wright, Pocahontas and Betsy Ross during their classroom's Famous Americans Museum.

Students in Roseanne Shaffer's second-grade class at Bon Meade Elementary dressed and spoke as noted historical figures in a Famous Americans Museum on April 9.

Each student selected a famous United States citizen and acted as a wax statue before presenting a short speech about their chosen person when solicited to do so.

Famous Americans represented by the second-graders included Sacagawea, Ruby Bridges, Babe Ruth and Martin Luther King Jr. among many others.
