Bon Meade First-Graders Learn Native American History

First-graders Connor Graham, Lexie Hvostal, Gwen McKenna, Emma Enos, Caleb Kemp pose with their classroom's teepee village.

Students in Krystyn Palsa's first-grade class at Bon Meade Elementary celebrated Native American History Month in November with various activities.

Students created a teepee village and dreamcatchers after learning about Native American cultures through videos and classroom lessons on their interactive whiteboard. Using their knowledge, students also created traditional Native American outfits and took part in a food-tasting and game session with time-honored Native American elements.
