MASD Calendar Wins Statewide Award

Moon Area School District's "2009-10 Activities Calendar" recently received top honors in the 2009-10 PenSPRA Excellence in Education Communications Contest. The publication received an Award of Excellence, the contest's highest honor.

A total of 36 publications including calendars, newsletters, annual reports, electronic communications, and Web sites among other categories were given Awards of Excellence and 37 received Honorable Mentions. Moon Area School District's winning publications were designed, edited and produced by Amanda Hartle, Moon Area School District's public relations officer.

The intention of the annual publications contest is to recognize outstanding communication efforts by Pennsylvania's school districts. Judging is conducted by a panel of independent professionals and award-winning publications are honored during the annual PenSPRA Symposium.
