MAHS Musicians Chosen for Regional Festivals

A quartet of Moon Area High School musicians recently were selected from a vast pool of talent to attend upcoming Pennsylvania Music Educators Association (PMEA) regional band and orchestra festivals.

Senior violists Eleanor Aban and Amanda Gorman placed third and seventh out of 20 fellow violists to qualify for the PMEA Western Region Orchestra to be held at Dubois High School on Feb. 25 to 27. More than 160 students from 33 counties will perform during the festival's final concert on Feb. 27 at Dubois High School.

Senior Nikole Warn – French Horn and junior Matthew Finley – Euphonium advanced to the PMEA Regional Band Festival to be held at Waynesburg High School on March 25 to 27. Finley qualified for second chair at the festival that culminates with a final concert on March 6 at Waynesburg High School, combining the talents of 150 students from Lawrence, Butler, Mercer, Beaver, Allegheny, Washington, Greene, Westmoreland and Fayette county school districts.

At the regional festivals, students will audition for the PMEA All-State Band and Orchestra festival slated for April in Pittsburgh.
