MAHS Junior Secures Runner-up Honors in Art Show

MAHS junior Sarah Petrozzi displays her runner-up certificate won in Pittsburgh Technical Institute's Visions and Voices High School Student Show in the computer graphics category.

Moon Area High School junior Sarah Petrozzi won second place in the computer graphics category of the Visions and Voices High School Student Show sponsored by Pittsburgh Technical Institute, which is ongoing at the institute's North Fayette campus gallery.

Sarah's piece entitled "Midnight Snack" was among 603 works submitted in 11 categories by 322 talented students from 89 high schools in six states. Only 48 winners were selected from the vast talent pool including a Best of Show awardee, 11 Best of Category winners, 11 second-place finishers, 10 third-place honorees and 15 honorable mention recipients. A panel of artists and independent professionals judged the show.

"Midnight Snack" is eligible for a People's Choice Award that will be announced following the show's March 26 conclusion. The institute's gallery is free to the public and hours can be obtained by calling 412-809-5100.
