MAHS Sophomore Advances to State National History Day

Moon Area High School sophomore Lauren Burgeson will compete at the state-level 2010 National History Day competition at Millersville University on May 12 and 13 after placing at the National History Day Pittsburgh competition at Heinz History Center.

Her paper, "America's Vegetarian Movement" secured third-place honors in the Historical Papers category. Winning state entries will advance to the 2010 National History Day Contest at the University of Maryland in College Park, Md.

National History Day encourages middle and high school students to create exhibits, produce documentaries, write papers, design Web sites or act in stage performances that display history in innovative and creative ways.
