Allard Welcomes Children's Author Bob Hartman

Allard students, staff and parents were treated to a special presentation by accomplished children's book author and storyteller Bob Hartman during the elementary school's annual Character Education Student of the Month Dinner on May 28.

All student of the month honorees and their families enjoyed soda and pizza while listening to Hartman's program, which combines traditional folk tales retold with his own dynamic and interactive style. Hartman has authored 50 children's books has worked with the Children's Museum of Pittsburgh, hundreds of area schools and major festivals, including the Edinburgh International Book Festival and the Summerset Book Festival in Australia.

The presentation was made possible by Moon Area's partnership with the National Character Education Foundation based in Zelienople.
