Student Artwork Posted in Online Art Museum

Hyde and Allard Elementary School student artwork can be viewed online in the world's largest online children's art museum at www.artsonia.com. Art teacher Kristin Hartman has partnered with the museum to bring Hyde and Allard artwork to a worldwide audience where visitors can browse artwork in the Hyde or Allard galleries by grade level or specific exhibits. Nearly five million art pieces from thousands of students in more than 100 countries are available to view.

Family members may purchase keepsake items emblazoned with original artwork with 15 percent of each product being donated back to school art programs across the nation.
